

Tim Alonso
Vice President of Leasing
Salesforce.com

Tim Alonso's professional background includes ten years of corporate real estate and facility management at All Covered, Inc. (Redwood City), Callisma, Inc. (acquired by SBC, Palo Alto) and Salesforce.com (San Francisco). He has directed strategic domestic and international site selections and lease negotiations; and has selected project management of fit out works and office/facility services to meet rapid deployment of workforce. Tim currently leads the global leasing activities of Salesforce.com.

In addition, for nine years Tim served as Director of Sales in the successful development of multiple retirement housing projects in the Scottsdale, Phoenix and Tucson areas (Forum Development); in Los Gatos (American Baptist Homes West); Cupertino (The Forum at Rancho San Antonio); and in Menlo Park (St. Patrick's Park-ended by referendum).

He is an active contributor to speaking engagements as a subject expert in numerous retirement housing seminars, interior design, healthcare, construction and media interactions.

His experience also includes corporate marketing and sales positions with Motorola, Philip Morris USA, and Transamerica ICS.

Education and Affiliations:

- BA SF State University 1976
- ISO 9000/14000 Certification
- Member, Northern California Chapter Corenet